Berkeley Futures Now Offering DMA Via All CQG Platforms

Berkeley Futures Limited, one of the UK's leading independent Futures, Options and FX brokers, announces it is now offering Direct Market Access, DMA, via all CQG platforms including CQG Trader, QTrader, ChartTrader, CQG API and CQG's flagship product CQG Integrated Client.

Andrew Woodward, Founding Director of Berkeley Futures, said, "We are delighted to add CQG to our existing suite of trading platforms. With CQG's quality data and charting packages and Berkeley's 26 years of experience in the derivatives markets this partnership will ensure we can offer our clients a premium brokerage service on all major Futures and Options exchanges."

"Partnering with Berkeley Futures results in improved trading access for professional traders worldwide," said Mike Glista, CQG's Director of Order Routing. "Our suite of powerful execution and charting tools provide broad market coverage and greater trading capabilities to Berkeley's extensive client base."

About Berkeley Futures Limited

Berkeley Futures (www.bfl.co.uk) has offered dealing services in Derivatives to Institutions and Individuals since 1986. Berkeley provides access to a wide variety of products both on-line and by telephone including Futures, Options, FX, Bullion, Contracts for Differences (CFDs) and Equities. All client funds are segregated from the firm's own funds. Berkeley acts purely as broker, is not involved in proprietary trading, and executes all trading for clients on a matched principal basis. Since 2008, Berkeley has been part-owned by Macquarie Investments (UK) Limited, a UK investment subsidiary of Macquarie Group, a global provider of banking, financial, advisory, investment and fund management services. Berkeley Futures Limited is a member of the London Stock Exchange, DGCX, Futures and Options Association and is authorised and regulated by the Financial Services Authority.
